

FIRE LADDIES RESIGN IN BODY

CHIEF MCKENZIE AND MEN OBJECT TO NEW REGULATIONS.

The entire fire department yesterday tendered its resignation to General Overseer James J. Degan, and unless something intervenes, dashing Chief McKenzie will cease to be at the head of the fire department on the first of next month.

Chief Jack objects to some of the new regulations which have just been put into effect; in fact, he objects to all of them, more or less, for Jack was here before the regulations came and he took pretty good care of the Tonopah fires without them. Still every department must have rules and regulations, so the county commissioners say, and so Overseer Degan declares, and these regulations are the same that are in force in the San Francisco department.

One of the regulations provides that the entire department, consisting of three men, shall stand watch, each taking four hours in the tower through the long nights, and to this the chief objects, believing that it is not practical with only three men. There are other rules to which Jack and his men object. Following is a copy of the resignation:

Tonopah, Nev. Nov. 26, 1907.
Mr. J. J. Degan, Town Superintendent, Tonopah, Nevada:

We, the undersigned, respectfully tender our resignations as chief of the fire department, assistant and driver of the fire department, to take effect December 1, 1907. We wish it understood that we are still a part and parcel of the Tonopah volunteer fire department, and always ready and willing to act as such firemen.

Thanking you for the many courtesies extended to us in the past, we beg to remain, very respectfully,

J. G. MCKENZIE,
Chief Tonopah Fire Department.
J. R. SCHMIDT,
Asst. Chief Tonopah Fire Department.
J. S. FULL,
Driver.

Chief McKenzie declares that there is considerable of the apparatus which belongs to the volunteer department, and there may be a clash over the authority of this. If McKenzie goes out of the town department, his departure will be hailed with regret, for he has been a very capable and efficient chief, attentive to his business, active in his duty, and particularly fortunate regarding fires.

BUSINESS THAT KEEPS GROWING

THE TONOPAH-GOLDFIELD MEAT COMPANY MAKING IMPROVEMENTS.

The Tonopah-Goldfield Meat company is improving its store, on Main street, just above the Southern Nevada Mercantile company. The company comprises L. T. Fox and Sam J. Weeks, and they have been steadily growing in the favor of the public through their prompt service, and the fact that they keep the best of meats the market affords. They slaughter their own meat right here in Tonopah, and have their own idea of storing, which perhaps, as much as anything else, accounts for the excellence of their goods. They had 600 turkeys for Thanksgiving, and disposed of nearly every one of them. They still have a few for the trade.

PERSONAL MENTION

L. L. Mudgett has gone to Seven Troughs.

Bert L. Smith went to Manhattan yesterday in his automobile.

Frank Golden was in Goldfield yesterday, returning last night.

Mrs. E. F. Smith, who has been spending several weeks at Fresno, has returned to Tonopah.

Major J. H. Monteath left yesterday morning for Palo Alto to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

C. A. Higbee, secretary and treasurer of the Tonopah Mining company, was a visitor to Goldfield yesterday.

Hubert Sinclair was a passenger on yesterday morning's train. He is bound for San Francisco, from where he goes to Montreal.

George Deblitz, an old friend of County Clerk J. W. Landquist, is here from Seattle, and he expresses himself as being very well impressed with the country.

"Jimmy" Travers, who has been in the east for nearly a year, has written to County Clerk Landquist that he will leave for Tonopah about the 10th of next month.

HAS LOTS OF GREEN VEGETABLES

SOUTHERN NEVADA MERCANTILE COMPANY DRAWS LARGE CROWDS.

The Southern Nevada Mercantile company has presented a holiday appearance for the past couple of days, the crowds keeping the clerks busy all day long. The store has had a wonderful sale of turkeys, and there are a few more left; and there are plenty of cranberries, and lots of green vegetables. There will be six barrels of greens in this morning. The store will be open until 9 o'clock this evening to accommodate the Thanksgiving public. It was almost impossible to attend to the wants of the vast crowds, but the addition of three clerks enabled them to accommodate every one.

NEVADA MINER'S COSTLY NIGHT

M. Lawlor of Nevada thinks that he fell among thieves Friday evening. He can account in no other way for the reduction of his money from $1100 to $2.61. He drifted into the harbor hospital yesterday and invited the surgeon to examine him for broken bones. A fruitless search concluded, he sat up on the operating table and told his troubles to Bill Heffernan, the steward.

"What do I owe you, Doc?" inquired the miner.

Heffernan assured the patient that there was no charge, but the steward's reply fell upon deaf ears. Lawlor was regarding the silver coins in his hand.

"Two dollars and sixty-one cents," he soliloquized. "You're a beaut. You told your wife that you could take care of yourself. You guessed you could be trusted to buy a few clothes without taking an expert accountant along. Where in thunder—"

"What's the matter?" inquired the steward.

"Nothing much. You see, me and my wife we come down from Nevada for a little trip. We went to friends in Oakland. I left there yesterday with $1100 in my clothes. See what I have left. Let me think a minute. Met a fellow on Ellis street. Forget what he said his name was. Took me to a place where they sold me this for a dollar and a half. I know that, for the price is on the tag. I took him to dinner at a restaurant. After dinner he introduced me to some friends. I took 'em all to some saloon and set 'em up a few times. Last thing I remember was buying six theater tickets from the bar tender. But I didn't see no show."

"Policeman told me this morning that they found me lying in Ellis street. This ain't my hat. My hat must be somewhere on Ellis street, but I ain't a going to look for it. They done me up all right, but I ain't kicking about that. And I ain't going to say nothing, either. First thing them darn newspapers'll get hold of it, and if they knew this in Tonopah I'd never hear the last of it. Ain't going to tell my wife, neither. But I ain't kicking. Guess I've done as bad myself, but I never trimmed a sucker when he was drunk. I sold a Methodist parson some claims in the desert once. They wasn't worth 10 cents, but he paid me and Doc Higgins $24,000. But he was cold sober and dead wise."

"Well s'long, Doc. I'm going to Oakland to get some more money."—San Francisco Call.

W. L. Young has opened a jewelry store on Brougner avenue, two doors above the Bonanza office, and opposite Rounsvelt's. Mr. Young has the reputation of being a practical jeweler, and an expert in repairing watches. He is getting in a fine stock of jewelry, and will have a lot of Christmas goods. He will also handle Tonopah souvenirs, and all sorts of specialties.

WARNING TO TAXPAYERS.

Taxpayers are notified to make haste and pay their taxes, which are delinquent on December 2. Do not wait until the last moment, for the county treasurer may not be able to accommodate you in consequence of the rush.

FREE TURKEYS FOR NEVADANS

LEGISLATORS WOULD ESTABLISH TURKEY FARM FOR PEOPLE.

Nevada is to be the first state in the Union to pay substantial tribute to America's "national bird," the turkey. If the plans of several well-known legislators are carried out. It is proposed to introduce a bill at the proposed coming session of the legislature, establishing a state farm for the propagation of turkeys. The birds are to be raised on the prison grounds near Carson. The labor is to be performed by the convicts. Each year, a few days previous to the governor's Thanksgiving proclamation one turkey is to be sent to each of the many families now residing within the borders of this state.

James McElroy, former assemblyman from Eureka county, who has been residing in Reno for the past several years received a letter from Felix Rice, an old Eureka friend, a few days ago, in which it stated that the proposed bill for a state turkey farm is to be introduced by Senator Frank Bossemer of Eureka county.

James Boyd, senior senator from Washoe county, favors the measure heartily. "It is a good idea," said Senator Boyd yesterday. "I will support such a measure. Nevada will then be the first state in the Union to substantially recognize Thanksgiving day. If we think enough of the custom to declare a holiday each November nothing could add more to its interest than providing each of the families in the state with at least one turkey. There will be many families this year who will be thankful to get a chicken. Forty cents a pound certainly makes the national bird a luxury. With the turkey farm in operation the cost to the taxpayers would not be great. The convicts at the state prison could easily do the work required to raise the birds. Then there is plenty of ground to keep them on and most of the feed could be raised. Yes, the more I think of the proposition the more I favor it."

"I certainly favor free turkeys for the people of Nevada," said Al Holmes, assemblyman from this county last evening. "The idea of a turkey farm is indeed a good one. It would be practically no trouble to raise the 15,000 or more birds required each Thanksgiving day and the people would appreciate it, too. Convicts could easily do all the work required. There is an abundance of ground around the state prison. Some of this could be cultivated and enough corn and grain could be raised to feed the birds. Besides it would be a good way to keep the convicts employed. The quarry keeps a good many of them busy a good portion of the time now, but with the turkey farm in operation all of them would have something to do all the year around. Besides it is healthy work and would do the prisoners good. Another feature of the proposed measure is that it would tend to make Thanksgiving day even more popular than it is now. If the measure is introduced at the proposed special session of the legislature I will without doubt support it."—Nevada State Journal.

ATTORNEYS FORM BAR ASSOCIATION

ORGANIZE BY SELECTING W. B. PITTMAN AS TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

All the members of the Tonopah bar met at the offices of W. B. Pittman last night for the purpose of organizing a bar association. W. B. Pittman was made temporary chairman of the meeting, and P. E. Keeler, temporary secretary.

It was unanimously decided that the association should be known as the Nye County Bar association, and should extend to the Fifth judicial district.

The chairman appointed a committee of five, consisting of H. R. Cooke, P. E. Keeler, L. A. Gibbons, O. J. Van Pelt and Alfred R. Needles, to prepare and draft a constitution and by-laws for the organization. As soon as the constitution and by-laws have been prepared and drafted by the committee, a meeting will be called and a permanent organization effected.

The principle object of the association will be to create closer relations between the members of the bar.

The secretary was instructed to notify all of the members of the Nye county bar living in Rhyolite, Beatty and Manhattan, of the action taken at the meeting and to request their co-operation.
